Fragmented Faith: Church Times Guide to the Church of England Leslie Francis

In 2002, the Church Times conducted a major survey into the make-up and prevalent attitudes to a wide range of doctrinal and moral questions in the Church of England today. The response was massive and a challenging picture emerged of a church with deep divisions of opinion between old and young, male and female, evangelical and catholic, charismatic and non-charismatic, conservative and liberal. This vital record highlights many live issues in the Church of England and crucial questions for its future.
