"We are all more interested in ourselves than in any one else in this world, until love comes; then we soon learn to love a man more than life, and when a child comes we learn another love, so clear, so high, so purifying, that we become of no moment at all, and live only for those we love." ? Gene Stratton-Porter, A Daughter of the Land

In A Daughter of the Land by Gene Stratton-Porter, the author of so many classic novels featuring nature explores a woman's relationship with her family and their farmland.
