No Excuse Leadership puts the listener at ground level and drives home 11 leadership principles through impactful, first-person anecdotes. Each chapter focuses on one Ranger School graduate and highlights one of many leadership traits within each story. The content of No Excuse Leadership is made up of the stories of 11 graduates, stories that are down-in-the-mud fun, eye-opening, and illustrative.

This audiobook has it all - guys from the Ranger Battalions, West Point, ROTC, and more. They relate different aspects of how they decided to go, how they prepared, what experiences they had at the School, and how the lessons they learned have helped them in their personal and professional lives. Leaders and managers face those inevitable times in their organizations when they must brace for turbulent weather and be ready for heavy workloads and unforeseen troubles.

Leaders have to rely on themselves, and more importantly, their work forces. No Excuse Leadership explains the kind of person you have to be in those difficult times. You will discover the mindset that makes people successful in Ranger School and the difference between those who simply survived and those that thrived.
