La narrativa latinoamericana contemporánea exalta el éxodo, el desarraigo y la condición nómada del "escritor migratorio". En su diáspora, ha rediseñado los clásicos repertorios de la identidad -lengua, etnia y territorio-, configurando una nueva cartografía de la pertenencia, más allá de fronteras nacionales y de la dicotomía centro/periferia. En los seis capítulos de Palabras nómadas. Nueva cartografía de la pertenencia se aborda esta nueva realidad transnacional, construida gracias a la multiplicación de circuitos de circulación y difusión. En sus páginas se analizan las obras más representativas de más de cien escritores latinoamericanos que exploran originales vías de expresión desde los más diversos escenarios de Europa y Estados Unidos y donde la visión de "la patria a la distancia" cobra una perspectiva inesperada, en lo que el autor de Palabras nómadas considera parte del "viaje inconcluso" de una narrativa en constante renovación.
