Why do some women always manage to fall for a man who they know from the start can never be any good to them?

Julie Kennedy, like most girls, had hero-worshipped the famous television singer Manuel Cortez from afar, but it had never entered her head that she might meet him, let alone that he would show an interest in her. But it all happened, and before she knew where she was Julie had fallen hopelessly in love with him. Hopelessly—because, as she well knew, to Manuel she was just another in a long line of adoring women, never to be taken seriously, never to last long.

Her head told her she must break away from him or regret it bitterly—but her head had no control over her heart...
