Droit européen de la concurrence (Competition Law/Droit de la concurrence) (French Edition) Jean-François Bellis

Le manuel « Droit européen de la concurrence » couvre l'intégralité du droit européen de la concurrence à l'exclusion des aides d'État. Il permet à son lecteur d'avoir une vision d'ensemble de cette matière technique, aisément accessible et illustrée des affaires les plus marquantes du droit européen de la concurrence. Il s'organise en dix chapitres qui examinent successivement les règles de procédure du droit de la concurrence, l'article 101 TFUE, les cartels, la coopération horizontale, les restrictions verticales, les accords de transfert de technologie, l'article 102 TFUE et les abus de position dominante, le contrôle des concentrations et les rapports entre le droit de la concurrence et les États membres.

Cet ouvrage trouve son origine non seulement dans le cours de droit européen de la concurrence que l'auteur enseigne à l'Institut d'études européennes de l'Université Libre de Bruxelles mais aussi dans sa pratique journalière devant les institutions de l'Union européenne.
